The 2007 Southwest Regional Training Academy Working with LGBTIQ victims & survivors of intimate partner violence

Sunday, May 20, 2007, Tucson, Arizona

This year's Training Academy is ideal for:

- victim advocates
- legal service providers
- law enforcement
- health care providers
- school-based personnel
- therapists

It is designed for those working in community based organizations and those working in government agencies who want to improve their effectiveness and sensitivity in their work with lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, intersex, and queer people who experience intimate partner violence.

The training will be an all-day, interactive workshop and will include information on LGBTIQ general community information, terminology, IPV dynamics and heterosexism, HIV-related issues, legal barriers – especially for trans people, and practical solutions and next steps.

This training is FREE to all attendees from the Southwest region of the United States but space is limited so please register early. The deadline for registration is March 30, 2007

Please email completed registration forms to Dulani@avp.org or fax them to 212-714-2627. Exact location of training will be given upon receipt of completed registration form or call NCAVP at 212-714-1184.
